

Poster List

Session 1

Research developments on animal assisted interventions under the “One Welfare” perspective: the dog-handler connection, Marta De Santis, Istituto Zooprofilattico Sperimentale delle Venezie, Italy

Health and welfare issues of imported dogs presented to UK veterinary surgeons, Robyn Lyne, University of Liverpool, UK.

Session 2

Assessing Stress in Hospitalized Cats with a simplified Cat Stress Score, Margarida Duarte-Araújo, University of Porto, Portugal.

Empirical treatments for colic in working equids in four regions of Colombia and its implication in animal welfare. Maria Alejandra Agudelo Cataño, University of Medellin, Colombia.

Session 3

Barriers to the promotion of positive welfare states for dairy cattle and associations with producer well-being. Michael Brunt, University of Guelph, Canada

Situation Analysis and Recommendations for the Biosecurity Status of Dairy Farms in Punjab, India: A Cross-Sectional Survey, Pankaj Dhaka, University of Ghent, Belgium

Exploring the well-being of animals through the lens of the human work environment. Hiromi Nagata, Kagawa University, Japan.

The impact of Covid-19 on working equids and their owners, Jessica Burrige, University of Nottingham, UK

Physical health, mental wellness, and overall well-being: Women companion animal guardians' contributions towards animal welfare during the COVID-19 emergency response. Horui Wu, Dalhousie University, Nova Scotia, Canada

Characterization of animal mistreatment in Antioquia (Colombia), Maria Jose Hernandez Ruiz, University of Medellin, Colombia.

A One Welfare approach to tick bite prevention: The impact of the environment on human and animal health. Elisabeth Walsh, Cork pet behaviour centre, Ireland.

One Health & One Welfare: holistic and interdisciplinary approaches projected to communities at risk. Juan Carlos Carrascal, University of Cordoba, Colombia.